NEW YORK HEALTH PLAN ASSOCIATION ON RECENT COURT RULINGS' POTENTIAL IMPACT ON HEALTH CARE

Statement by Eric Linzer, HPA President and CEO

“We are disappointed in the recent rulings in Braidwood v. Becerra striking down provision in the ACA requiring coverage of certain preventative services without cost sharing and Alliance for Hippocratic Medicine v. U.S. Food and Drug Administration invalidating the FDA’s 23-year-old approval of mifepristone. Although state protections exist to provide access to these services, these decisions have caused unnecessary confusion and concern for New Yorkers. While we await further federal guidance, we are working with regulators to ensure there is no disruption to coverage of these important benefits.”
