NEW YORK HEALTH PLAN ASSOCIATION ON MEDICAID WORK REQUIREMENT DELAY

Statement by Eric Linzer, HPA President & CEO

New York's health plans applaud Governor Hochul's decision to opt into the six-month grace period for enforcing new Medicaid work requirements. As plans continue to work with the State, this additional time is necessary to help prepare for the impact of the new requirements, educate and assist members in navigating the change, and lessen the potential disruption of care to vulnerable New Yorkers who rely on this program."
